ELLA Conference set for Sept. 18-19 in Little Rock

Human resource professionals require up-to-date information on pending legislative issues and new requirements imposed by state and federal regulators.

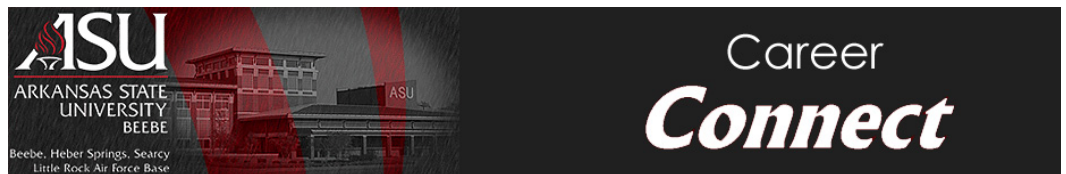

The 2013 ARSHRM Employment Law & Legislative Affairs Conference will be the best place to acquire the necessary information and tools needed to guide your company through the many legal challenges ahead.

The conference will be held at the Little Rock Marriott on Sept. 18-19.

Attendees will:

- Hear state and federal legislative updates.
- Meet Arkansas legislators.
- Hear from expert speakers.
- Network with other HR professionals.

Members may register for the conference at www.arshrm.com/ella2013. It costs $200 until Aug. 30.

ASU-Beebe's Student Success Center launches Career Connect

The Student Success Center at Arkansas State University-Beebe has a new service that can help employers find applicants for open positions.

Create an account in the Career Connect system, which enables employers to:

- Post announcements for current job openings and review résumés submitted.
- Schedule information sessions, on-campus interviews, and various other college recruiting events.

- Review student résumés as they are uploaded into the specialized Résumé Books.
- Register for the annual Career Fair.

To get started, visit Career Connect at <https://asub-csm.symplicity.com/employers/>. A company logo may be uploaded as well.
