State SHRM conference kicks off April 9

Join us over the rainbow for three magical days of fun and learning!

The annual ARSHRM Conference is an opportunity for HR professionals from all over the state to learn, share, network and grow. This year's conference theme is "HR in the Land of OZ," and the conference committee is hard at work putting together a great lineup of speakers, sessions, and activities.

The conference is being held April 9-11 at the Fort Smith Convention Center.

Regular registration is open through April 2. Registration fee is $360 for the first attendee from a company and $310 for each additional attendee from the same company.

More information, including hotel rates and reservation dates, is available at www.hr2014.org. Online registration is now live, so register today. Don't miss out!

Job fair to be held March 12 at ASU-Searcy

Job seekers, students, and community members are invited to attend the ASU-Searcy White County Job Fair on March 12 to meet with local and regional business owners and professionals.

Those who attend will learn about current or future employment opportunities as well as the knowledge, skills, and abilities required for obtaining employment with participating employers.

The job fair will be held 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at ASU-Searcy, 1800 East Moore Ave.

NCASHRM member Dale Speight will have a Workforce Readiness booth set up! Come by and say, "Hi!"

For more information about the job fair, call 501-207-6218.
