North Central Arkansas Society for Human Resource Management

Affiliate of Society for Human Resource Management

October 2015 Newsletter

Social Media

•Twitter: @NCASHRM

Cook to speak at Oct. 20 meeting in Searcy

Russell Cook of the Arkansas Department of Workforce Services will speak about the hiring of veterans during the chapter's meeting Tuesday, Oct. 20. It will begin at 11:30 a.m. at the Searcy Chamber of Commerce. Please RSVP!

The next meeting will be held Nov. 17 at Ann's Bridal in Searcy. This will be the chapter's annual Bosses Lunch.

The December meeting will be held Dec. 15. Location is to be determined. It will include a conference call with Sherry Johnson to discuss member service area option, the annual bake sale for SHRM donation and collection of hats/mittens for a local school.

We will take nominations for the treasurer/secretary chair. Email a nomination to Tracy Smith at tracy.smith@fecc.coop.

Aerojet Rocketdyne to hire HR manager

Aerojet Rocketdyne is a world-recognized aerospace and defense leader providing propulsion and energetics to its space, missile defense, strategic, tactical missile and armaments customers throughout domestic and international markets. The company offers a complete line of propulsion products for launch vehicles, missile defense, and advanced hypersonic propulsion.

Aerojet Rocketdyne seeks an HR manager at its growing Camden facility. Relocation is provided.

Please apply to this position via the comany's website at http://www.rocket.com/job-search. Use keyword "HR manager" to find the position. For questions, email Dana Fazio, senior recruiter, at dana.fazio@rocket.com.